Our thoughts and prayers are with Nick Russo and his family. He was a patriarch not only to his family but to Westampton Township as well. He will be fondly remembered.

Happy memories of visiting Uncle Nick's Farm market, running through the orchards with our cousins, and eating Aunt Dot's spaghetti in the back kitchen. His laughter and good nature at peeling the "fuzz" off peaches for Nancy and me will always remain. We are so sad for his loss. God bless all the Russo family and give them peace. With deepest sympathy, Diana (Hopkins) & Mike Hazzard
