“ I remember going to Norma's on New Year's Eve one year when she was living on Lincoln Street in Lewiston. We watched an hours-long standup comedy special on HBO, and we had such a good time! She was a loving, giving person. I've always been a bit of a clown, and I took such pleasure in making her laugh, because her laugh was so contagious. I will miss her so much.

“ Norma was like a second mother. I practically lived at her house during 7th and 8th grade. There was so much laughter, love, and acceptance when you came to her house. We all loved being there and with her.

Thank you for being such a huge part in my life. I loved visiting Maine with you, the long talks, and all the shenanigans with Steph, Kristy, and Shannon. You are loved. Big time.
