“ Will be missed by his family & friends. I still thought of him as "Dad".

Going to miss seeing him work outside in the yard and especially his veggie garden. No body could grow tomatoes, peppers, cucumbers and others like he could. He had a Magic Green Thumb. Just want to remind family that he IS in a better place. A place where he will no longer feel pain or sickness.

Doesn't sound like much, but that is what gets be through the bad days with Mom. We will all miss him and pray for the family and knowing they will get thoru it. One day at a time.##imported-begin##Patty Allen Welsh Dennison##imported-end##
