

Olimpia Gentile

March 6, 1921 - March 28, 2011

Olimpia Gentile of Lumberton died Monday March 28th, 2011 at Virtua Memorial Hospital in Mount Holly. She was 90. Mrs. Gentile was born in Providence, RI and had spent most of her life in the Mount Holly area. She was the daughter of the late Frank and Jenny Pallante. Mrs. Gentile was a seamstress for many different clothing companies, most recently Medford Knitwear. She was a member of Mount Holly Seniors, loved going to Atlantic City, playing bingo and doing lottery scratchoffs. Mrs. Gentile had a wonderful zest for life; she enjoyed cooking, sewing, painting, gardening and playing Skip-o with the family. She looked forward to get together with her three sisters and brother John every week.

Wife of the late Charles Gentile, she is survived by her daughter, and constant companion, Linda Lee Teel (Terry) of Burlington; three grandchildren: Lori Hopkins (Dan), Cheryl Bachich (Buzz) and Anthony Menie, two step grandchildren: Gina Groves (Mike) and Michelle Teel, eight great grandchildren: Tearany Hopkins, Connor Hopkins, Danny Hopkins, Brittany Bachich, Hailey Bachich, and Cole Bachich, James Menie and Amber Groves and one great, great grandchild Eddie Jeremiah McRae. She is also survived by three brothers: John, Salvatore (Tootsie) and Frank Pallante and three sisters: Ann Ingling, Josephine Eckert and Lucille Reamer. She was the sister of the late Mike Pallanto and Raymond Pallante.

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Friday at 10:30AM at the Sacred Heart Church, High Street and Bartram Ave., Mount Holly. Interment will be in Sacred Heart Cemetery, Hainesport. Friends may call Thursday from 7-9PM at the Perinchief Chapels, 438 High Street, Mount Holly. There will be no calling times on Friday, everyone will go directly to church.
