“ Words always fell short when I wanted to let you know how much your friendship meant to me. All I can say is that my world is full of smiles when I think of you.

When I start to feel sad because I am missing you, I remind myself that I was extremely fortunate to have had someone as special as you to miss at all.

When the stars shine bright in the sky, when the sun rises & sets each day, when the rain falls & everything looks bright & beautiful, I will miss you in every way possible. God bless and love you forever.

Your loving friend, Denise Dattilo

“ To the Family, I moved to Lumberton not knowing anyone and found a family. I would not have made it through the years without her love and support. You will be missed.

“ To the family of Mrs. Simone,

My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family for your loss. Losing someone you love in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. The Bible is able to speak consolingly to those who are experiencing grief and its promises are faithful and true. Psalms 55:22 say “throw your burden on God, and he will sustain you....”. This scripture makes it clear, that no matter what we are facing God is there to help us get through it. I pray the love of God enfolds you during your journey through the grief process. My hope is that this Bible message brings you a measure of comfort during this difficult time and may the outpouring of love surrounding you, comfort you also.

*Sincerely
Gladys*

“ To my dearest Mom. You taught me so much about compassion, unconditional love, patience, perseverance and determination. You are an amazing wife, mother and grandmother to Andrew and Matthew. You taught me how to be the best mother I can be. You never judged me and always allowed me to make my own mistakes, but was the first one there to pick me up when I fell. Your time with us on Earth was way too short, but you provided me with enough love and encouragement to last a thousand lifetimes. My heart may be broken, but it is full because of you. Until we are reunited once again, I will continue to learn by your examples to be the best person and mother I can be. I am the luckiest girl in the world to have you as my mom and thank God that he blessed us with each other. I love you more than words can ever imply. ~Your daughter, Wendy
