

Patricia Elizabeth Moser

September 9, 1932 - August 4, 2013

Ms. Patricia Elizabeth “Nana Pat” Moser passed away last Sunday, August 4, 2013 at her daughter’s home in Browns Mills at the age of 80. “Nana Pat” was born on September 9, 1932 in Birkinhead, England; the daughter of Leslie Lowry and Eileen Purnell. She moved to the United States in the 1950’s and had six daughters: Linda, Lesley, Marie, Cynthia, Christine, and Sandra.

Patricia is survived by eight grandchildren, Amanda, Joseph, Melissa, Bryan, Lauren, Morgan, Tyler, and Autumn; eleven great-grandchildren; and is preceded in death by her brothers, Richard, Tom; her grandson, Colin; and her husband, the love of her life Edwin Moser.

Nana Pat was extremely proud of her Bachelors degree in social work from Trenton State College, and worked for the State of New Jersey at Yardville Penitentiary for twenty years, earning a pension and was able to retire. Both Pat and Ed were major supporters of their local worker’s union and were longtime residents of Roosevelt Twp. in Monmouth County where they served on the town council. Pat was also President of the Senior Citizens Club of Roosevelt. Patricia loved her daughters, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, all of whom were fixtures in her life.

Graveside service was held Saturday at the Roosevelt Cemetery.
Arrangements by the Perinchief Chapels, Mt. Holly.

“Long Live the Union.”
