

Pauline F Whitcraft

July 8, 1930 - August 22, 2019

Pauline Whitcraft of Juliustown died on Aug. 22, she was 89. Pauline was born on Magnolia Street in Beverly to Anthony and Frances Cecilia and was raised with her 3 sisters and 3 brothers. She graduated from Burlington High School in 1948. As a young woman Pauline worked at the Watch Case in Riverside and she also worked at Gregory's in Mount Holly for 14 years. Pauline married James Whitcraft, of Riverside, and they were married for 59 years. They resided briefly in Mount Holly, Massachusetts and Leisuretowne, but for most of their marriage they lived in Juliustown.

Pauline (or Paul), as her siblings called her, was the fourth of seven children. She is the sister of the late Anthony Cecilia of Kennedyville, MD, the late Francis Cecilia of Burlington, the late Josephine Wilson of Delanco, the late Joseph Cecilia of Edgewater Park, and is survived by sisters Barbara Clemens of Edgewater Park and Patricia Snow of Maple Shade.

Pauline and Jim had 6 children, Sharon Eggleston (Bryan) of Juliustown, the late James Whitcraft, Jr. (Rita) of Lumberton, Nancy Williams (Walt) of Bradenton, FL., Carol Jones (Charles) of Wyalusing, PA, Cathy Miller (George) of Parkton, MD and Steven Whitcraft of Pahrump, NV. They have 5 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

Pauline was a devoted wife, a wonderful mother, a loving sister, a faithful friend and she will be missed by all who knew her.
