

Philip C. Capocci

February 26, 1944 - May 1, 2026

Philip C. Capocci, 82, of Somerdale, passed away peacefully on May 1, 2026, at Virtua Marlton.

Born in Philadelphia on February 26, 1944, Philip was the beloved son of the late Phillip and Mildred Capocci. He was raised in Philadelphia and was a proud graduate of Bishop Neumann Catholic High School.

Philip spent more than 23 years of his professional life at General Electric in Philadelphia, where he worked as a program analyst in the Aerospace Division. Throughout his career, he also held various other jobs and positions.

A passionate sports enthusiast, Philip excelled as a high school football player and earned a full college scholarship for his achievements on the field. His love of athletics continued throughout his life, as he became a highly respected official in South Jersey. He officiated football and basketball and served as a baseball umpire at the high school level, as well as a college-level official for football.

Philip's greatest joy was his family. He cherished every moment spent with his loved ones, especially attending his grandchildren's sporting events and celebrating their accomplishments.

He is survived by his children Christopher (Teresa) Capocci, Jonathan (Stefany) Capocci, Matthew Capocci & Danielle Brand (nee Capocci); his dear sister, Donna Tartaglia; and his cherished grandchildren, Landen, Lucas, Jack, Sloane, Emmersyn, and Eloise. In addition to his parents, Philip was predeceased by other beloved family members.

Relatives and friends are respectfully informed that services will be held privately at the convenience of the family.

May he rest in God's eternal peace, and may his memory be a blessing to all who knew and loved him.
