“ Phil Chanhee was the most sincere man I have met. He was not afraid to talk honestly and bluntly about our salvation from God thru Jesus Christ. I am honored to have known him and his beautiful family. He will be remembered forever and shall remain in our hearts until the Lord takes us home with Phil. We love you Phil. Charleen, may you feel the hands of God holding you now. Barb, Brian and entire family.

Didn't know him personally, but I followed his YouTube and Instagram. I owe a lot of what I know about fishing today to this man. I wish I would of had a chance to meet him. My deepest respects and condolences go out to his family. God now has a great fishing partner up in heaven!
