*My Dear Phil, she was the best to share any good, bad or simply funny news with each day at Lenape! She will be missed by so many, while Phil will most definitely remain in the hearts of even more as a lifelong friend! “ Oh Filomena! Our office-to-classroom phone calls full of coded language and fits of laughter had us both in tears. I would love sitting near your desk and chatting with you about life, students and your days in high school. You never failed to tell me when I should have ironed an outfit and I never failed to ask you to do it for me. I miss you! I know you are looking out for all of us. P.S.--I am still not ironing anything.

“ It is funny but Heirlooms we don't have in our family, but stories we've got. I still remember the day Phyllis and Rich had me and Bob to their home along with Eddie and Nancy, Kerry and Louis and Mark and the girls. She cooked the hugest Italian meal ever. It was great getting to meet the cousins in person. She welcomed us with open arms even though that day she had a horrible migraine. She pushed on just to show her love. Now, Even tho' we haven't gotten to visit often or kept in touch as much as we should of. We have thought of her and all of you all often. I know Phyllis's love for your family and friends was shown to everyone. She truly had the biggest heart and brought everyone so many smiles That is part why losing her is so tough.. I pray that in this difficult days ahead that God would come and comfort each one of you. And that your Memories of those wonderful times will help bring smiles thru the tears. We know one day God will wipe away every one of those tears. Her legacy will live on in each one of you. I know she will want you to continue to laugh, love and be together. The beautiful thing about love is that never dies. Phyllis will live on forever in our hearts and each one of your hearts. I know I can't be with you for her services but I will be there in spirit. Trees without roots fall over. I am glad ours has so many wonderful roots holding us together. May God be your strength and comfort. Thinking of you all for sure. Love, Prayers and Hugs. Love Your Cousins, Shawn and Bob Stutzman

Omg. I was so surprised to hear of phyllis passing. Everytime I come up to jersey,always thought about her,but it's such ashame I didnt, we had so much history,back in our early teens thru high school. We had some crazy times,and phyllis always called me witch,lol I remember the days in their house and all the big Sunday dinners, the best salad,and the homemade ravioli, had some of the greatest memories with that family.We did get to see each other on our fiftyth class reunion. Time flys by so fast. Rick so sorry for your loss, keep your family close and friends,we will need them. Phyllis was maid of honor at my wedding,which was 12/63. We go way back, she was the best best friend back in those years .she was loved.
