“ It has been said that Angels walk among us. I believe that Phyllis Dillard was one of those Angels. I guess God needed her more than we did & He called her home. She was everything a person should be. She never complained even though she was very sick for a long time. She was always thinking of others. It has been a blessing & a privilege to be her friend for the last ten years. I am comforted knowing that all her suffering is over & her body is restored completely. But, there is a sadness in my heart that will remain for a very long time. There is no one that I admired & respected more than I did her. I will be praying for her loved ones in the days ahead. .Just remember, she left a part of herself on this earth in the hearts of all who loved her.

Goodnight my Plummy. .BJ & I LUM!!!

“ I am one of the lucky people to have met Phyllis.
I have known Rosie, (Phyllis) since 2001, we met on the Internet.
We played many games together on Pogo.
There were quite a few of us, and we all have stayed close through the years. We all gave each other our phone numbers and address so we could stay in touch. I remember one time that we had not heard from Rosie for a few days, we all started calling, her home, neighbors, then I called the Mount Holly police, they checked on her, finally the police called me back to say she was in the hospital. I believe she had the flu. We all sent cards and even talked to her while she was there...she was so surprised to hear my voice when I called. She was like my second mom, I have lost one of the most precious things in my life, I will never be the same. I will miss her the most in the morning when I get on the Internet, I always wrote her a 'good morning' email. Her name will remain on my list of friends forever, for even when I'm gone no one can delete it...Good bye My sweet Rosie...as we always say to each other, LUM...Love U More!!! Kakky##imported-
