

Raymond M. Engle

October 24, 1959 - March 31, 2015

Raymond M. Engle, of Hainesport passed away Tuesday, March 31, 2015 at Burlington Woods in Burlington Twp. He was 55. A lifelong area resident, Ray was an avid fan of the Green Bay Packers, New York Yankees and Indy Car Racing. He had made multiple trips to the Indianapolis Motor Speedway to see the Indy Car races with his father and was also able to visit Lambeau Field for a Packers game.

Ray was also well known for his passion for music and drumming, having played for the Chatsworth Destroyers at many different venues throughout the area over the years.

He is survived by his loving wife, Katharine (nee Holmes); his beloved son, Ryan Engle; caring parents, Walter and Gail Engle; and many aunts, nieces, nephews, and friends.

A visitation will be held Monday evening from 5 to 8 pm at the Perinchief Chapels, 438 High St., Mt. Holly. A prayer service will follow at 8 pm.

Interment will be private. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his memory to the American Diabetes Association, PO Box 11454, Alexandria, VA 22312.

“ So very sad..My father was raised in Mt. Holly. His name was John V. Engle. He had a brother Edward. My dad was raised by his Aunt on a hill in Mt. Holly. I was looking up Engle n Mt. Holly. If you were related to my father, I thought this might help in some way by my writing this. My name is Theresa (Engle) Heath from Collingswood. God bless Raymond.

“ It has been many years since I have seen Ray, Aunt Gail & Uncle Walt. I am so blessed that my parents were so close to Uncle Harry & Aunt Flossie! We were taken in by the most amazing family I have ever known & had the pleasure of being part of! I have learned so many valuable lesson through the years. The most important lesson is no matter how far we all drift apart in our day to day lives the fond memories and life long lessons live with us forever! God Bless you Ray!

“ Ray was a kind man, great drummer and a good looking guy. We certainly had a lot of fun back in the day. I have fond memories and he will certainly be missed by everyone who had the pleasure of knowing him. My condolences to Walt, Gail and Ryan. May God comfort you through this very difficult time.

“ Aunt Flossie asked me to help her express her heartache over Ray and we were reminded of a poem that my sister's children held dear as she and I cared for their mother, Patty, at the end of her life. There are now many versions and I hope this one comforts all of us during this sad time:

*God saw you getting tired, relief was not to be.
So He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me."*

*With heavy hearts we'd gather,
we watched you fade away.
Because we love you dearly,
we could not ask you stay.*

*You did not deserve what you endured,
and so He gave you rest.
We see God's love as He shows us
He only takes the best.*

*So now we see you sleeping,
so peaceful, free from strife.
It is our faith that comforts us,
through your everlasting life.*

With Love, Kathy

“ My condolences to Walt and the rest of the family. Ray will be missed. I would often cross paths with him on my travels and we would stop and make time to catch up. He was a great musician and friend.

“ I've know Ray ever since grade school. It wasn't till later in life when we became close friends. I thank God to this day that they didn't have Facebook in the 90's because Ray and I had this thing about finding the most awful pictures of one another. RIP my favorite drummer face.
