“ I'm so very sorry to hear about the passing of Ray. My thoughts and prayers are with Judy, Judy Rae and family. When you think of Ray the first thing that comes to mind is a smile. He could always put a smile on your face, even during the worst of times. It was an honor to work for Ray and Judy and I feel a part of my life lessons were provided to me by working at the Evergreen. He was a man with many stories, which I could never get enough of. Rest in Peace Ray and may your loved ones know how much you meant to so many people.

“ Well Uncle Ray, I sure am kicking myself for not visiting you. Like I said to you in the hospital, I was planning on calling you around the holidays to get together. I am however happy I got to see you one last time. I will always love you and I too will miss the "hey kid" and the "I love you too" I pray you and Pop-Pop are giving them hell up there! Till I see you again ❤️ xoxo

“ Dear Seward Family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a husband and father in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.
