“ Ray we had so many laughs when we worked together at Toms Painting. I just spoke with you about a month ago. You will definitely be missed. Rest in peace "money".

“ Ray I remember so many of the silly times we had in RVRHS, especially lunchtimes. I got to know your brother Bob, worked together at the chemical company together. We use to talk about you often. So so sorry to hear of your passing. Way to young dude. Thanks for your friendship. Love you! May God take great care of you.

“ I am hurt to hear this, I've known Raymond for many years. I've been in the same class with Raymond from Westampton Elementary School to Rancocas Valley High School, I have always considered Raymond to be one of my friends, he was the BEST! Rest in Peace Raymond, I know GOD will take you in his arms. RIP Raymond.

“ I'm shocked and saddened by this news. I've known Raymond since 2nd grade at Westampton School. In more recent years, he always waved or gave a hug when he saw me. He was a very kind person, and that's how I'll remember him. My sincere sympathy to the Trevino, Moringelli, and Zuccarino families. Rest in peace Raymond.

“ Ray, I will miss your humor and love of Philly sports teams. We once planned a trip/get out of NJ trip to CA., in my MG Midget. I will always wonder what fun we would have had, it would have been a heck of an adventure. My condolences to your family. Bless you Ray.

“ My beautiful cousin Raymond (Kimo). Bobby told me once you did not like anyone to call you that, but I can't help it. We didn't talk much but I did think of you & the family often. I will miss you even though we haven't spoken since the 80's. I love you & the rest of the family. RIP my lovely cousin. I plan to see you in heaven.

“ Ray was a good man. His depth of caring knew no bounds. My favorite memories of Ray AKA Moon was riding around in my 67 Buick singing 4 part harmonies, telling lame jokes an laughing our butts off! I would give anything to have one more day like that. I will miss you my friend. I'm thankful you no longer have to travel the road of pain. Now enjoy your well deserved peace
