

Richard P DiCamillo

September 24, 1957 - November 11, 2015

Richard P. DiCamillo, 58, lost his battle with ALS on November 11th at his home in Lumberton, NJ. Born in Philadelphia, PA, Rickey moved to the area during his middle school years and made it his lifelong home.

He was a devoted husband to Julie for 28 years and they brought into the world their beautiful daughter, Stephanie. Together they were loving parents to both Cory and Stephanie. His family was the center of his universe and the joy and sparkle in his stunning blue eyes. They loved him for all he gave and all he was.

An accomplished craftsman, dedicated 28 years to R. T. Winzinger Inc., where he became known for his skilled metal work, warm heart and big handshakes. No matter what anyone needed, Rick was always willing to help.

Rickey lived free. Weekends were spent riding highways and back roads on his Fatboy Harley with his wife and friends or riding around on his tractor at "the ranch". An Eagles lover (and hater) till the end; you could always find Rick with his family armchair quarterbacking The Birds on football Sundays.

Survived by wife Julie and daughter Stephanie, parents Phil and Jean DiCamillo, sisters Debbie and Cindy, brothers Kenny and Gary. Preceded by son Cory Baker and brother Mickey.

Relatives and friends are invited to his viewing on Monday Nov. 16th, 5pm-8pm at the Perinchief Chapels, 438 High St., Mt. Holly. Mass of Christian Burial will be held Tuesday, Nov. 17th, 10am at The Parish of Sacred Heart, 260 High St., Mt. Holly.

Refreshments to follow at Barclay Haines House, 1702 Marne Highway, Hainesport.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations be made to the ALS Association of Greater Philadelphia at alsphiladelphia.org or ALS Hope Foundation at alshopfoundation.org.

“ Dear DiCamillo family:

Your family is in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. We have a great hope for the future because God promises to bring those we lost to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief Bible message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.
