“ Dick was our wonderful brother-in-law. I remember when Polly and Dick lived in our upstairs apartment on Lippincott Avenue. My son Jim was about 3 years old when he pulled the stick out that held up an old window in our kitchen and it slammed down on all of Jim's fingers. I could not lift the window for the life of me. Dick came tearing down the steps and lifted the heavy old window off of Jim's fingers. I will always remember with fondness a man who always had a smile, a joke, just someone who was fun to talk to. We love you Dick and know you were a believer and look forward to seeing you happy and healthy again in heaven. God's speed dear, dear brother.

Thank you Aunt Betty for that memory and for reminding me that my dad always had a smile and loved to joke. That's the best way to remember him!

Thanks Tom. I didn't know who to contact my dad's work friends. This means a lot, MacMillan was such a big part of his life.

*I met Dick in 1961 in church in Topeka, Kansas when he was stationed at Forbes Field. He was very special to me and has remained so all these years. I too will always remember his quick wit, kindness and so many good qualities. My parents were very fond of him. We dated during the time he was stationed here and wrote letters over many, many years and sometimes had phone conversations. We remained friends all these years. I met his parents in 1965 when on a trip to NY City. His mother and I shared cards and notes until she passed. I enjoyed learning about the births of Adam and Matthew and have always wished Dick and his family well. I have enjoyed contacts with Linda and appreciate her notifying me of Dick's unfortunate passing. I hope to meet again in Heaven. My sincerest condolences to the family.
