“ TO MICHELLE, "LITTLE RICKY" & RYAN MY THOUGHTS & PRAYERS ARE WITH AL OF YOU. RICK WAS THE MOST PATIENT PERSON I EVER MET. I AM NOT GOOD AT COMPUTERS BUT RICK WOULD TALK ME THROUGH IT AND MOST PEOPLE WOULD SAY "ARE YOU STUPID" NOT RICK. HE WAS ALWAYS SO UPBEAT AND POSITIVE. ANYTIME WE HAD A PROBLEM AT WORK THE FIRST THING WE WOULD SAY "CALL RICK" AND HE ANSWERED NO MATTER WHAT TIME OF NIGHT IT WAS. I HAVE KNOWN HIM FOR 14 YEARS AND I WILL MISS HIM SO MUCH. REST IN PEACE, MY FRIEND. REGINA McCAY

“I recently met Rick through his loving wife Michelle. Rick was always working on something, whether it was mulching in his yard or working in his garage. A couple of weeks ago he redid the park bench on his porch, which turned out beautifully. I recently gave him a sewing machine since he was going to start a project with Michelle. Always keeping himself busy. In the short time, I've known him I could see his kindness and his love for his family. The Heavens has gained an Angel. Rest In Peace Rick

“My deepest sympathies to Michelle, Ricky, Ryan and the family. There are no words to describe what this man meant to so many. I worked with him for 13 years, his nickname given to him "Macgyver".. and boy was he... He could do it all with nothing but stuff in his pockets.. and if he didn't know how to fix it believe me that was a challenge he accepted to find a solution and he always did. He did so much for so many of us at work and he will be deeply missed. His passing unfathomable. You may be gone but believe me when I say you will not be forgotten for the memories and your spirit will be with many of us forever. Rest in Peace dear Rick "Macgyver" Raymond
