“ For 12 wonderful years we were taught by a creative, loving, caring and knowledgeable human being. You changed me from being an angry at God person to one who now understands more of how this Universal Mind works. Your teachings through out the years has made your passing more bearable. Thank you for your time here on earth to spread wisdom, knowledge and love to others. You will be missed! You will forever have a place in my heart.

“ I called your number yesterday and discovered it was disconnected. I did a quick search and discovered you passed away.

I am really saddened to discover this news. May you rest in peace. As you taught me nearly 20 years ago, your journey has come to end. May you continue to educate others in the next realm.
