“ I will always remember my Aunt Missy as a soft spoken, kind, and loving person. My earliest memory of her was when I was probably about 5 years old - it was Christmas and our families, including our Aunts and Uncles, gathered at the "Janney house" in the Village of Rancocas where I grew up. She ever so gently handed me a beautiful little red velvet jewelry box - inside was a whole dollar coin. I suspect it was the first time I saw a dollar coin and I still remember how special she made me feel. She continued sharing her love and kindness, along with my dear Aunt Nora, teaching my children and many more children after that, at the Rancocas Friends Nursery School. She will lovingly be remembered by all who knew her. May her soul rest in peace.
