“ Dave and family are visiting with us here in Lagunitas. We've been sharing Uncle Bob stories, thinking about you all this morning. Our favorite is the story of Uncle Bob walking his horse through the kitchen in Oxmead Rd, we think it was before our parents were married. I think of Uncle Bob with that mischievous smile in his eyes...

Our love to you all, Carol, Mike, Hannah, Dave, Anya & the kids.

“ Bob was one of my favorite people at Moorestown. He always had a smile and a twinkle in his eye.

The day we are born is not as important as the day we die because we have made a name for ourselves. Bob made our little piece of the world happier.

“ Dear Deacon family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.
