“ Dianne and Lou Ferrara send condolences to Robert's family. Dianne has fond memories of her cousin in Jersey City and his father, her beloved Uncle Lou. It is sad how families spread out so far that they no longer are part of one another's lives, but the are still loved. ”

“ To My Friend... How much will I miss you...let me count the ways...

I will miss our lunches with you , me & Bruce

I will miss you impersonating me when we want to purchase a vehicle

I will miss you when it is time to move the boat again.

I will miss you trying to teach me, for several years now, how to back up a trailer

I will miss your stories about working on the NJTP and as a truck driver and as a GSM

I will miss what I was hoping to become a tradition...road trip to JAX.

I will miss you at our BDay dinners

I will miss your upside down pineapple cake

I will miss you telling me to always take the truck lanes on the NJTP

I will miss you telling me the passenger seat belt on THE BAT is stuck.

I will always miss you...

RIP My Friend.
