“ If you played Sports when Bobby and David played, Mr. Gaskill was there!!! One Tough looking Man, but really a helpful one when you needed, and asked Him for a pointer. He touched so many young guys lives.....I wonder if He knew!!! Well, He touched my Life, because I admired how good his Sons were, and I know He showed them a whole lot, if not everything! Talk about Home Town Legends, He was definitely one! RIP Mr. Gaskill, everytime I see a photo of your Sons, I see you.

Dear Elaine, I'm not sure you remember who I am. I'm Bill Gardner's wife, Marge. Bob was behind us in high school, but Bob and Bill worked at the Mt. Holly PO together for many years after Bill retired from the Marine Corps. The last time we met was at the Burger King at the By Pass. How ironic that both Bill and Bob would meet their Maker within three days of each other. Bill passed away on the Fourth of July and we are both now grieving widows. I'm still in shock even knowing Bill's death was short coming. While he was home here with me--- until the Friday before he died--- he was alive! In spite of his long illness, I cherished our time together for better or worse. While I am at peace that his suffering is over, and that he is in his Heavenly Home where their no longer is sorrow and pain--- just the love of Our Lord, my heart is breaking from the finality of his passing. Caretaking was such a heavy burden, but I would do it again in a heartbeat. I feel your grief and sorrow since we are both in the same boat, and I offer you my deepest sympathy and pray for your comfort and peace. Check Bill's obituary in the Perinchief Obit, too. May you find strength to face the day of saying your final "good bye" tomorrow. In Christian Love, Marge

Dear Elaine and family, Although 100 miles away from Mt. Holly, news of this sort seems to travel like the wind. I offer my condolences to you and strength for your journey ahead. You were blessed with a long and happy marriage with many happy memories. Ironically, July 7 is the same day Joe passed away different year...so I am sure they are having a grand reunion up there in the clouds. VIVIAN BRYANT RHODIER
