

Robert Walter Johnson Sr

April 27, 1931 - December 12, 2023

Robert Walter Johnson, Sr. of Westampton passed away on Tuesday, December 12, 2023 at his home. He was 92.

Born in Trenton, the son of Walter and Sadie Johnson. The oldest of three boys. Mr. Johnson joined the US Air Force in 1951 and served during Korea and Vietnam, retiring as a Tech Sergeant in 1971. He then worked as a corrections officer at the Burlington County Jail. His last job was with the NJ Department of Human Services at the New Lisbon Developmental Center. Robert was in charge of the Special Olympics at New Lisbon for many years. He was a longtime member of the American Legion Post in Westampton. Robert enjoyed his trips to the casino. He also loved his sports, especially watching the Philadelphia Eagles.

Robert was the husband of the late Irma who passed away in 2016. He is survived by three children: Rolandus Johnson of Texas, Robert Johnson Jr. of Philadelphia, and Sharon Denise Bradford of Florida; 9 grandchildren and many other family members and friends. He was predecessor by his brothers Ernest Johnson and Ronald Johnson.

Relatives and Friends are invited to attend his viewing on Saturday, December 16, 2023 from 12pm – 1pm. An American Legion service will be held at 1pm, followed by Military Honors.

Burial in BGWCD Veteran's Memorial Cemetery will be held privately.
