“ I had the pleasure of working with Bob. He was kind, he was a team player, he was always supportive of his teammates. His presence and positivity was Infectious. I will miss our conversations about life, Bob’s love for his family & grandkids, the eagles and hearing Bob’s signature laugh. He was truly one of a kind.

To the family, the prayers of many are with you. Hope in some small way hearing how Bob impacted the lives of others, brings comfort. His life was a light that shined bright.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.”

“ I’m at a loss of words. What an incredible man Bob was. I had the honor of meeting Bob with the Conti’s when I worked for the Phillies for Spring Training and at the hotel they stayed at. I first spoke with him over the phone and said he sounded like a sports broadcaster when booking his sleeping room for Spring Training and then is when we became friends. We kept in touch throughout the years and he would always let me know when his family and the Conti’s were coming down so I could see them. He would tell me about the awesome trips him and his wife were going to go on, and the exciting news that he was going to be a grandpa (both times). I’m seriously at a loss and my thoughts are with his family during this time. Bob, you will truly be missed. Coming from a Rays fan, I’m glad the Phillies introduced me to you my friend. May you Rest In Peace my friend.

“ So sorry for your loss. I will always remember Bob "pretzel Bob" as we loving called him. He always had a smile on his face every time he came into the office. I knew Bob for over 20 years as a drug rep and a friend. He will be missed.
