“ My Daddy was awesome. He always kept a rational head about things and gave you his honest thoughts, even if you didn't like what he said, you kinda always listened. I miss him every day, half expecting him to pop up and say he got us good, that he isn't really dead. Of course that doesn't happen. I know all of the logical things, "He isn't in pain, he is in a better place...etc..." My heart just can not accept that I will never see my Daddy's face , or hear his voice ever again..yes life goes on, but there is a hole that nobody can fill. I try to be brave and strong but on the inside I feel so much heartache. I can't talk to anyone because everyone is dealing their own way and it wouldn't be fair to impose my feelings on them. All I can do is take it hour by hour and day by day, avoiding people when I feel the tears threatening to surface and smiling to hide my tears. I love you Daddy!
