“ *My sincere sympathy for your loss to the family of Robert Schwarzwald*er.

Robert was in my class RVRHS, Mount Holly. He was always entertaining.

I was raised in Tabernacle but moved to Bordentown in 1960 when I got married. How surprised to read that he owned the Market in Tabernacle (previously Abner Nixon's store).

It would have been such a pleasure to shop there. I still remember a poem that he wrote in English class:

"Some people think my teacher is pretty but don't believe that Because the makeup on her face is a thick as a mat"

He was quite a character and made our time in class so enjoyable.

May he rest in peace, Robert
