

Robert C. MacLachlan

January 21, 1947 - March 16, 2013

Robert Charles MacLachlan Aged 66 years, January 21, 1947 - March 15, 2013.

Predeceased by his adopted father Bruce MacLachlan and his mother Naomi MacLachlan. Surviving children Laura and Justin MacLachlan, brothers Frank MacLachlan(Kim) and Bruce L. MacLachlan (Laura). Bob also left a sister Ellen Wallace (Craig). Bob had nieces Lauren, Jennifer, and Stephanie, and nephews Robert, Joseph, Sam, Jason, Joe, and Ryan as well as their extended families.

Bob also lost his very best friend Joe a few years ago. As those who served in the military know, experiences there good and bad are rarely matched in civilian life. Although Bob suffered nine bullet wounds and the horrors of combat during the Vietnam Conflict, Bob always held on to the memories of the good times he experienced traveling all over the world numerous times in his years with the United States Navy. Every family gathering one would hear the good stories about his travels, the bad times he held to himself until his death. Although separated by distance, Bob truly loved his children and longed to be close to them. Bob sacrificed five years of his life to live with and personally care for his mother. Bob loved watching Football games and Nascar Racing. Bob loved traveling to car shows and races with his brother Bruce. An extremely intelligent easy going guy, Bob never had a bad word to say about anyone. A true hero, his family and friends will certainly miss him dearly.

Funeral service and interment will be private. Arrangements by the Perinchief Chapels, Mt. Holly.

Tribute Wall

“ Robert C. MacLachlan

October 29, 2022 at 11:57 AM

“ Robert C. MacLachlan

October 29, 2022 at 09:53 AM

“ I purchased this 75 mm brass shell from a dealer in Phoenix this winter. Wonder if it is the same guy. contact jmonroe6691@gmail.com

Bonnie Sorensen-Monroe - March 04, 2019 at 03:03 PM