“ Roger was the man! I couldn't hang out with him without laughing, smiling & feeling loved. The love for his family and especially grand daughter shined brighter then the sun. Thanks for being a real friend and a brother to my father for years. They don't make them like you anymore. Fly high brother. - Little Junior

Thank you so much Brittany this is so nice . He felt like you guys were his family also. He felt like Bill was a father figure since he never had a father and was very proud when Bill said good things to him about the job. He was very proud of his job. And loved you all.
