Rolande Clavette Webb, 92, of Southampton, NJ, peacefully passed away Saturday, November 9, 2024, under the care of Samaritan Hospice.

Rolande was born March 26, 1932, daughter of the late Fred and Annie Clavette and was raised in Eagle Lake, Maine. After her marriage to Vaughn Webb, of Houlton, Maine, in 1952, Rolande moved to New Jersey. She resided and raised her family in Colonia, NJ.

Many of Rolande's favorite memories revolved around spending time with her family, meeting people when she and her family would travel in their camper, preparing meals, and enjoying life at her home alongside the Garden State Parkway. Before her children, Rolande enjoyed teaching both in Eagle Lake, ME and then in Iselin, NJ. After teaching, she worked alongside her husband, Vaughn, running their business, Webb Bowling Service.

Rolande will be remembered for her deep faith and love for her Lord and Savior, her warm, welcoming, and very tight hugs, her interest in learning about the lives of everyone she met, her conversations, and long visits on her swing. She was enthusiastic and gifted with yarn, crocheting and knitting, as well as showing her skill with other craft making and decorating her home with a country flair. An avid reader, Rolande enjoyed the written word, from scripture and classic novels to "gossip magazines."

She is pre-deceased by her devoted husband of fifty-eight years, Vaughn.

Surviving are her children Karen Riccio (Dan) of Tabernacle, NJ and Russ Webb (Colleen) of Flemington, NJ; and six grandchildren, Reilly Webb, Lauren DePermentier (Nick), Colgan Webb, Emma Webb, Elizabeth Webb, and Danny Riccio.
