

Ronald Lewis Winter

June 10, 1966 - November 19, 2018

Ronald Lewis Winter of Wilmington, Delaware passed away on Monday, November 19, 2018 at Christiana Hospital in Newark, Delaware. He was 52.

Born in Philadelphia, Ron grew up in the Rancocas Woods section of Mount Laurel. He earned his Associates degree from Burlington County College and worked for the State of NJ in the Department of Youth and Family Services for over 25 years. Ron loved to read and was into Science Fiction and comics. He enjoyed attending Sci-Fi and Comic related conventions.

He is survived by his mother Carole A. Winter of Southampton; his aunt and uncle Bill & Carol Stahl of Springfield, PA; several cousins; and his friend Pat Betz of Wilmington.

A Memorial Service will be held on Tuesday, December 4, at 6pm at the Messiah Lutheran Brethren Church, 530 Virginia Drive (Presidential Lakes) in Browns Mills.

Contributions in his memory may be made to the Messiah Lutheran Brethren Church, 530 Virginia Dr, Browns Mills, NJ 08015. Arrangements by the Perinchief Chapels, Mount Holly.

Tribute Wall

“ Ronald Lewis Winter

October 29, 2022 at 11:57 AM

“ Ronald Lewis Winter

October 29, 2022 at 09:53 AM

“ You were a beloved friend of my late sister Geri for many many years. This tells me you must have been a real good guy. RIP. See you in the next dimension with the Doctor.

Carole - December 02, 2018 at 08:14 PM