“ Mama how can I put into words how I feel right now. It was my dream to sit and talk to u to laugh and share my experiences, the process has started but it was not be, thanks so much for the conversations we would have and the laughs when I call u there's never a dull moment I wish things would have being different but it would be selfish of me to ask for anything else but for u to be free of all aches and pains. I love u very much thank u for all the love and help that u gave me. I know that things will never be the same without u but know I will be OK SISP mama I will always 😍 u 😍😘😘 it was an honor to have u as my grandmother will cherish every memorySip

“ A tribute to Mama!

Mama was a fighter. She fought many illnesses including but, not limited to diabetes, stroke, arthritis, thyroid disease, and ultimately cancer, and at 7:56 am on Saturday, her fight to beat cancer came to an end and she departed this earth for a much better place.

As I sat there and looked at the empty shell that remained, so many thoughts raced through my mind. This is the woman who invested countless hours in raising me, my siblings and many others, and any success we have experienced at any level should rightly be credited to her commitment as a mother.

Raising us was not easy, and has never been. But mama was especially equipped. She loved us unconditionally and most importantly, she loved and believed in God with that been said Mama knew that nothing was impossible in God's eyes with that preparation, it was her destiny to raise us to the best of her ability.

Most importantly, mama pro-actively instilled values in our lives: good work ethic, honesty, family and faith. These values guide our lives today as we held our heads high and have all made her proud.

In these modern times when mothers are encouraged to focus on their own fulfillment and ambition, I salute my mother, Rosalind R Jones, and her extraordinary investment in our lives and the lives of everyone she came in contact with.

Her efforts were not in vain, we are who we are today because she fought for us and insisted that we live and experience the best life she had to offer. She sacrificed a lot and give us opportunities that helped to shape our lives. Most importantly, she introduced us over and over to the God of the universe whose endless truths continue to direct our lives. We love you mama.

Just read this beautiful tribute to your mom! I did not know she had so many children. You are so correct when you said she was a fighter. She never allowed anything to get the best of her. She was a real trooper. I'm sorry for your loss!
