“ Clarence, Victoria, Clarence,III, Raymond, and Tamara, I am so very sad to hear of the passing of dear Rosemarie. A healing prayer for the loss of your dear wife, mom and friend. Offering my deepest sympathy and prayers for strength and support. Lovely, gentle and wise Rosemary, during the many, many years we worked at the United Nations, I remember you for your goodness, equanimity, kindness, and your willingness to always help and support others in difficult situations. I will always value the time we did have. Rest in peace....love you! Friedda Radovic & family

“ My dear Rosita, it was very sad to learn about your untimely passing. I was really honored to meet you, I learned so much from you while working together; the dedication and professionalism you showed on anything you put your mind to was exemplary. I found in you a true friend and enjoyed our conversations where we share news on our families and work. Goodbye my dear colleague, friend and "birthday sister", you will be always remembered. With love,
