

Ruth Morgan

November 15, 1935 - April 16, 2017

Ruth B. Morgan, 81 of Willingboro, passed away on Sunday, April 16th, surrounded by her loving family.

Born in Coaldale, PA, she was a resident of Weatherly, PA for 18 years, before moving to Willingboro in 1958 with her husband. Ruth was employed by the Penny Packer Park School as a secretary, from where she retired. Ruth was also a singer in church and sang lead soprano in many church choirs. She loved cooking, baking, playing the piano, and spending time with her family. She also enjoyed road trips with her husband and visiting family in Weatherly. Ruth was always known as a “charming lady”.

Daughter of the late William and Marian (McLaughlin) Weston, sister of the late William “Billy” Weston, sister in law of the late Ethel Sue Weston, and mother in law of the late Andrea Morgan. She is survived by her loving husband of 63 years Donald Morgan, children David A. (Donna) Morgan, Suzette (John) Morris, Thomas Morgan (Dorie Caponey), and Donald (Beverly) Morgan, 12 grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren, siblings Joyce (Bill) Knepper, Shirley Anne (Henry) Hinkle, Marian (James) David, and Donald Weston, many nieces and nephews, and friends, and her bird, Charlotte.

Relatives and friends may call on Sunday, April 23rd, from 3-5pm at Perinchief

Chapels 438 High St. Mount Holly. Graveside services and Internment will be held on Monday, April 24th at 11:00 AM at the Union Cemetery in Weatherly, PA. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the First Presbyterian Church of Mount Holly.
