“ Ruth lived a few houses down from us. My family and I would go over her house to spend time visiting when we were younger. My father would help her by mowing the lawn and anything else she needed to be repaired. She was always so kind and friendly. She will be deeply missed by the Horner family. May she rest in peace forever. ”

“ *I grew up next door to the Spencer family on Juliustown Rd in the 50's and 60's. Ruth was like a second mother to me. She would join us playing softball games on the corner and would sit on her porch and talk with the neighborhood kids. I am so glad that I visited with Ruth last year. May she Rest In Peace.
