

Ryan S. Miller

August 20, 1991 - June 3, 2021

Ryan S. Miller of Waldorf, Maryland, passed away suddenly at his residence on June 3, 2021.

Ryan was born in Mount Holly, NJ on August 20, 1991, to Brian Miller and Mary Greenwald. He was a graduate of Rancocas Valley High School class of 2009 and went on to graduate at the top of his class at Pennco Tech, where he became a certified mechanic. Ryan loved music as well as Subaru vehicles. Ryan was a happy go lucky person who loved his family. He was always looking out for his “Bro Bro” Tyler and was a true Mama’s boy who cared for his mother deeply. Ryan was also a member of the Holy Light of Jesus Christ Church in Burlington where he would attend with his father. He will be truly missed.

Ryan is survived by his loving mother Mary Greenwald and her boyfriend Todd Hirth of Bordentown, NJ, his brother Tyler of Bristol, PA, he will be truly missed by his best friend, George Halleran III of Mount Holly, NJ. Ryan will also be extremely missed by his Aunt Alice and Uncle James, as well as his Uncles Brad and Michael and their families.

Ryan is predeceased by his father Brain W. Miller.

A Memorial Service for Ryan will be held on Saturday June 19th, 2021 at 10:30am at the Holy Light Church of Jesus Christ, 133 East Union Street, Burlington NJ, 08016
