“ I’m Anthony’s girlfriend. Mr. Phipps you were and still are like a second father to me and you always will be, it’s weird you not being here, I loved rafting and going camping with you especially 4th of July weekend. Don’t worry Ant and I will definitely make sure our kids know about you,I know you always talked about when you met them and stuff. You were an amazing guy and father and husband. I miss you so much! “ So many memories of you from getting the chicken pox from you and my sister as a child to you taking the boys, Mike and I for a tour of the Mount and me almost falling. You were a great father, husband, brother-in-law and Uncle. Fly high and rest easy until we meet again. Love you

“ I have been praying for you and the rest of the family. It is surreal to think that the last time I saw you, would be the last time on this earth. Thank you Ryan for the love you showed my boys, for our last tour of Mt. Holly and sending us back from NJ with some very warm feelings and a great, last, memory of us together! That's all I could talk about while departing, not knowing if we'd ever see eye to eye. Rest in peace Ryan, as we are sure to see each other again one day. Farewell brother!
