“Daddy, you were my rock all these years, (Roland is too!) You and mommy gave me my roots, strength and heart. I am so proud to have you as my dad. We shared so much together. Happy times along with sad. You will always be with me. But now you are with your sweetheart of many years. Right by her side (it took a little longer then you planned), but as you know, mom had to get the place in order (by shopping and cooking) You are also with family and friends, no more pain or suffering. Now watch over us as you always did my new Guardian Angel. Happy 90th Birthday! Will always love ya

“ Even though there are too many to share, one of my favorite was of camping with my Pop Pop and Mom mom. There was a threat of a tornado coming through and Mom Mom was really worried. She leaned over and said to Pop, "Sal, are we going to be ok?" His reply was, "Damn if I know Dorothy but I have my pants on and I'm ready to go." This was Pop....always prepared and ready to solve any problem.
