“ We will remember Sandy as a devoted and loving mother. We are sincerely grateful that she entrusted us with the care of her son, and it is our privilege to continue to support him. We will keep our promise to make sure that he is cared for and that she is not forgotten.

“ Sandy was my friend and neighbor. She had a quiet and gentle nature about her BUT she was Loving and Kind. I drove her for some medical tests and she was very grateful. I will miss her dearly. Rest in Peace Sandy.---Pat Fleming.

“ When I first met Sandy we were just neighbors. We would greet each other in passing but that was all. Sandy was a very private person and it took at least two years of the 13 years we knew each other to allow me into her life. She was the most loving caring friend I have ever had. We shared late night talks on the phone and visits. When Sandy said she cared, she really did. It was not just casual rhetoric, she really meant it. I did not get my usual phone call from her last night and I have to accept that she is gone but certainly not forgotten. My sincerest condolences to Jon, Jason and Steve and all of your extended family.
