“ Scott was my friend, and I miss him already. I remember that last time I saw him, he was on his way to Utah and he was so excited. I was in a rush and I wish I took more time to talk to him. I admire how self confident and upbeat he always was. I remember watching him grow into a fine young man...I liked watching him feed the deer...they were practically eating out of his hand. Was looking forward him making me a coolata...he said he could make a good one. I remember when he was addicted to the same subway sandwich...every time I saw him coming home from work he had one. It was funny. He was a good dude...

“ Scott was such a nice and kind boy. He was sweet and caring. He loved my family cat Bella. She loved him also. He loved animals and our family has always had cats and dogs and he always wanted to pet them when he came over. Scott also helped me in our office and wow he was so fast and really a great kid. Our hearts are sad for him and his family. Scott will be greatly missed by all. Love The Harber Family.

“ Having been in school with Scott since elementary school, this loss is really hitting me hard. Scott was the nicest kid and I always enjoyed having classes with him. Seeing him at Dunkin before going to work always made my day better. I wish i could put my thoughts into words, but I can't. All in all, Scott and his huge, ever-present is going to be missed. I would do anything to be home for the funeral, Scott. Rest peacefully.

“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. I personally experienced the grief of losing my loved ones. However, there is comfort to know the Holy Scriptures gives the assurance that God will end death, pain and sorrow. Rev 21:4
For the ones we have lost in death, there is a promise for them by means of the resurrection. John 5:28,29

“ Scott, you were most definitely a unique expression of the universe. There was never a time I bumped into you where you didn't put a smile on my face. I'll never forget the kindness you always extended to me and I'll miss gaming with you. If there's another life, I hope we cross paths again. Rest in peace, Scotto.

“ Scott was always such a happy and fun person to be around I have fond memories of us talking and hanging out. Especially on my morning dunkin runs or between classes at Shawnee.he always greeted you with a smile even if it had been years since you last spoke. He will be deeply missed by all the Shawnee community. One of the nicest kids I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. Gonna miss you bro.
