In the short time that I have known you, I saw that you were extremely caring and loving. I wish I had more time to get to know you and catch up on things through out the year, but ill cross your path one day again. I believe if we would have had more time to spend together than we would have had an amazing father-daughter relationship. But you went through a lot and no one compare to anything that you have done. I love you and rest in peace. <3

Steve, you were always in my thoughts over the years. Especially every time I looked at the kids, I saw you. Even though our paths have crossed over the years, I wish I had the chance to say farewell. You will be missed. Watch over all the kids. I have always loved you. Now you are free to start your next journey, I hope you are at peace. It's time to rock and roll. Toodles
