“ My heart dropped when I heard the news of "Pop-pop Steve". He was a spectacular man with a giant heart and an overwhelming love for his family and friends. I thoroughly enjoyed my time with him as one of my most favorite customers at Ott's in Berlin. He always brought a smile to my face with his jovial, witty banter. He was always very thoughtful - remembering our birthdays and holidays by bringing us birthday/Christmas cards complete with scratch off lottery tickets, dog biscuits for our puppies and always inquiring about our lives and families at home. I thank him for sharing his stories AND his wedding date with me (I just got married on January 23, 2015). He will surely be missed by all of us. I hope his family and friends find peace in this hard time. It is NEVER easy losing someone, especially a man like "Pop-pop Steve". In the relatively short time I had to get to know him (and some of his family), I realized that he was definitely one of the good ones. They don't make them like that anymore.

God bless and peace be with you all.

“ The Yurko Family, I am so sorry for your loss, but know that your father is in heaven and looking over all of you each moment. A warm breeze, a beautiful beach, birds chirping and he can be there for all of you at once. His memory will fill your lives with smiles and laughter. Please hold on tight to each other and know he is at peace.

“ So long old friend, you filled our lives with with so many happy memories. Whether working together at the bank, our frequent camping (and other) trips, our many visits to restaurants (including watching you talk Tracy into splitting your selections) or that great trip to Paris, you were a big part of our lives and we loved you and Myrt. Our prayers are with Patrick, Stephen and Michael and all of the extended Yurko family.

“ Dear family of Stephen Yurko:

I was sorry to hear that you lost your father and grandfather in death. Losing a loved one is one of the hardest things that any of us will ever have to deal with. I would like to share a Bible thought from 1 Peter chapter 5 and verse 7 where it says: Throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. This scripture makes it clear, that no matter what we are facing God is there for us. Please take time to pray during this time. I hope this brief Bible message has brought you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ Oh Steve what a guy!
He would tease me that my husband's family was from the "Extension" Not Cinnaminson.
I am So Sorry to hear about Steve's passing. My first thought was that he is now with his beloved Myrt.

Many prayers for your family.
