“ May Stevie rest in peace. He fought a courageous battle for many years. I will always appreciate Stevie and Ivy visiting us when my husband was fighting lung cancer, they helped to create happy, smiling memories of which I will always cherish. My husbands name was Larry Snyder and they will now meet again in a place where there is no pain. My deepest sympathy to the entire family. Ivy, I'm here for you if you need to talk. Stay strong and all of you are in my thoughts and prayers at this most difficult time. Love Tracey Snyder & Family
