“ Suzie and I met back in the late 80's at the Godfather in Burlington. From the first time we met I knew that we would get along wonderfully. Going to see the Calycs and tormenting that band was such fun with her. Riding around in her Camaro ,up and down Rt.38..She had such a feisty spirit,which is why we got along so good. Although it has been many,many years since we spoke I thought of her often and wished that we could have reconnected..Oh ..and her fear of driving over the Burlington Bristol bridge..how that made me laugh..Rest in peace Suz..and know that I tried to find you throughout the years..til we meet again my friend..

“ Its fitting the clouds are gone and the sun shines bright for you and your family and friends. You're light shown through the dark days in my life. I didn't realize it until we parted. God knows I regret so much. I've thought of you often over the years and I used your example to be a better person. Today and all my days I dedicate myself to your memory and am determined to do my best to bring light and joy to others as you had all your days. Today and always I see you smile through my tears. Sleep well I always loved you and always will. Goodbye Little Lulu. My deepest condolences for family and friends.
