“ Father Jago became rector of St. Andrews as I was entering high school. He was a role model for me. I will miss his sense of humor, encouragement, warmth and caring. He's been there for my family and me during happy times (my Eagle Scout ceremony) and sad (my mother's passing). I wish I could have flown out to be at his funeral. Rest in Peace. My deepest condolences go out to his wonderful family.##imported-begin##John W. Powell##imported-end##

“ Frank, David, Vanessa, Jennifer and Family, May you all find some comfort in knowing how greatly loved your dad was by many. John and he often joked that he was responsible for our 30 year marriage. We loved his ability to make a joke and make us smile even in the most desperate times. Keep the memories of then good times spent together closest to your heart and may they help you make it through the rough days ahead while you grieve. St. Andrew's hasn't been the same since he left. God must have needed help and selected him at this time. Our sincere thoughts of sympathy are sent your way today.##imported-begin##Terri Linton Sackett and John Sackett##imported-end##

“ My friend Frank Jago was a outstanding human being and a compassionate Man of God. It was my pleasure and privilege to enjoy his companionship for many years.
Father Jago served at the Priest for the Capt. Emilio Carranza Memorial Service sponsored by Mount Holly Post #11 the American Legion where I am currently Commander. I had the honor and privilege of singing in the St. Andrews choir in Mt. Holly for some ten years.
May you his family have found memories to see you through this time of grief.
