“ I first met Mr. Tiver in 1978 when I worked with his son, Tom. I always admired him and the entire family. Even though we moved away many years ago, I think of the Tiver family often and I remember his smile and his kindness. Mr. Thomas Tiver will be missed by everyone who knew him.

My family (Easterling) became friends with Tom and Gloria many years ago when my Dad helped with the building of their home. Tom and Gloria became family friends Tom was one of the kindest nicest people as is Gloria. Sending our deepest sympathy to Gloria and the entire family for the loss of a wonderful husband, father grandfather, and great grandfather. Sharon Stan Tyszka
