

Tomoko H Peck

March 17, 1934 - December 6, 2021

Tomoko “Tomi” Peck, of Hainesport, passed away peacefully while surrounded by family on December 6, 2021. She was 87.

Born in Tokyo, Japan, Tomoko met her late husband, Lenny Peck, while he was stationed in the military. They were married on June 4, 1954 in Tokyo. Tomoko was a longtime resident of Hainesport. She had worked as a seamstress for many years and loved to sew. Tomoko enjoyed traveling. She used to frequently travel back to Japan to visit her family with her late friend, Margie Stringfellow. She loved animals, especially her late dogs Timmy, Tippy, Hank, and her current furry friend, Frankie.

Tomoko is preceded in death by her husband, Leonard “Lenny” Peck and daughter, Mildred “Millie” Mushinski. She is survived by her daughter, Patricia Smith and her grandchildren, Melanie Schroeder, Michelle Mushinski, Monica Mushinski, Greg Mushinski Jr., Melissa Crist Malcolm, and Taylor Smith. Also her great-grandchildren Chelsea, Jeremy, Matthew, Bridget, Elana, Noah, Eli, Ethan, and Adam. As well as her close friends Mrs. Cooper, Sue Texany, and Tony-san. She will be greatly missed.

The family will have a private, intimate viewing and burial on Monday.

Everyone attending should wear a mask or face covering. Arrangements by the Perinchief Chapels, Mount Holly. www.perinchief.com
