“ I'm sincerly sorry to hear about our dearest friend Tracy, I just found out about her passing. She was my families dear friend that we knew for many many years . My mother spoke highly about just what kind of person she was and her family myself I knew what she was going through along with her family.I 🙏 pray every night for her and her family Tracy is an Angel 😇 and watching over her family. And she's with God like my mother. this family is going through a lot still to this day and I know I will always pray 🙏 for all of them they will be in mine and my families heart.GOD BLESS THE SZELC FAMILY.. “ I am so sorry to the Szelc Family and was saddened to just hear of this news. Tracy and I had so much fun together in the 70's. She was a very cool and a sweet kind person. We loved listening to music together. My deepest condolences. Rest Easy Sweet Tracy Szelc.
