“ Dear Brewer Family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ Every family has that one person that is the glue that holds the family together. For us that person was Nannie. Without her our family is broken.

Memories- I remember her beef stew, her rice pudding, green beans in the pressure cooker, vegetable soup, but most of all her love of spaghetti and ice cream. She told me several times that when she dies she did not want flowers but that I was to bring spaghetti and ice cream to her grave. She told me she could eat that every day for the rest of her life.

I remember her love of pansies. Whenever I saw a pansy I would think of her and then buy it because no one could ever have enough beautiful pansies. Believe me her house shows that we all must have felt the same way.

I remember her as a woman of faith. She was a role model. Loved yard sales, shopping, eating out, but most of all she loved family. She said that they are family and family does for family.

Forever in my heart..... I love you and will miss you terribly. Lena “ *God sent an angel to this earth,

I called you Mother who raised me from birth
You listened to me through laughter and tears,
and were there for me for so many years
Now what can I say?
For God has taken my Angel away
The most giving woman I've ever known,
but now our Lord has called you home
A life eternal in His loving care,
by His grace one day I'll see you there
Goodbye for now, Mom, until we meet again;
My Angel, My Mother, and My Best Friend
I LOVE YOU!!!!!!!!!!!!*

“ I met Virginia several times at the Kohli's home. What an inspiration and kind gentle woman. I am sure she is in Heaven. Thoughts and prayers to your family.

“ Remembering trips to Clementon Park and the lake, her Mac and cheese, squiggly noodles and sauce. Seeing her sitting at the kitchen table early in the morning reading her bible when I was young. She always said we were such good kids even though I know better 😊. I'm going to miss her warm and loving smile. Praying for my family who I love so much.
