“ I met Kay Foster, as I knew her, at the dentist office where I work. She was a wonderful, cheery and thoughtful lady. Always dressed to the nines, she would have interesting stories of her life's journey. I always felt like I learned something listening to her and she made me think about how I could be a better person to others. I am grateful to have been able to have lunch with her and visit with her in her home prior to her leaving us. She gave me a card at Christmas with the Three Kings which I still have hanging above my front door today. She was a very special lady and I will miss her dearly. Here is to your next life's journey...Stephanie Fink
