“ I'm remembering the times I would visit Uncle Billy and Aunt Mary in Texas, and he would make the most delicious lamb chops, and after dinner the three of us would sit out on the porch for hours talking. It was always warm and cozy and lots of fun. Things just aren't the same anymore without you both. Missing you, Anne

“ We were so sorry to hear of Bill's passing. A great remembrance will be the wonderful neighborhood corn beef dinners that he and Mary loved to prepare. They are missed.

“ Uncle Billy rescued me from the top to Barnegat lighthouse when I was ten years old. I climbed up with my cousins and froze. You saved me. I have so many memories of your kindness, humor and of course, you, my dad and uncle Albert singing O Danny Boy after a holiday meal and a few cocktails. Classic. I will miss you so much. Please give Aunt Mary a kiss for me.
